

Sales, Marketing and Customer Service

Customer Happiness satisfaction, loyalty and complain management

Course Introduction

Many businesses focus on reaching out to new customers. While it is essential, the most crucial component for long-term success is keeping customers happy. Happy customers are the ones who are loyal to your business for a long time to come. Organizations should not assume they know what the customer wants. Instead, they can use tools where they can gain detailed insights as to what their customers want and better tailor their services or products to meet or exceed customer expectations.

customer happiness

This training course is designed to provide participants with the relevant concepts, strategies and techniques in managing customer happiness, meeting their expectations and measuring satisfaction and loyalty.
